Confidentiality

We offer a confidential space where you can talk openly about issues you feel troubled by. All of the information that you provide to our counselor is confidential and kept in a secure location. Other departments do not have access to any information you provide in seeking assistance. Although staff members do, on occasions, consult with one another about students' needs, identifying information will not be released to any outside party without your written consent. Hence we will not pass on personal information about you to anyone outside the Service, unless you have given us permission to do so or in other instances explicitly stated in the Exclusions to Confidentiality Policy and agreed upon by you on initiating the counseling process.
